

Rhythm of my Soul

You are invisible
I do not have the eyes to see you
Yet I feel your presence in my heart
You create me everyday
You give me strength and wisdom
You are with me in my sorrows and happiness
You transform my sorrows into compassion
I can feel other's sadness.

I hear your footsteps
When sitting quietly
Morning daylight is sweet
Songs of the silver waves are joyous
Soft floating clouds are serene
Quiet murmur of the sea breeze
Uplifts my dull soul
You are there for me in everyway
Your divinity is at work
I see you when closing my eyes.
